

QUALITY POLICY

«Turbine Technology AAEM» Limited Liability Company («AAEM» LLC)

The main Quality Objective of the Company is to ensure quality, reliability and economic efficiency of equipment designed and supplied to the nuclear power plants meeting the needs and expectations of the Customers and providing stable financial position of the Company.

The above goal is achieved by:

- the Quality Management System meets ISO 9001:2015, efficiently functions and continuously improves;
- contractual obligations and applicable legal requirements are met with due account of all stakeholders' needs: of consumers, counterparties, founders and staff of the Company;
- employees awareness is created that quality is a major contribution in the reputation of the Company and financial well-being of each employee;
- «process approach» and risk-oriented thinking are used;
- advanced design and engineering solutions based on international and Russian developments are used;
- the staff is trained and their competence is improved;
- focus is ensued on experienced product manufacturers.

The General Director leads quality activities of AAEM. The General Director commits to provide the Company with the necessary resources, to ensure achieving of the objectives and to create conditions to use efficiently and to improve the Quality Management System.

General Director

 I. A. Vergizaev

