

QUALITY POLICY

«Turbine Technology AAEM» Limited Liability Company (AAEM LLC)

The main Quality objective of Company is to ensure safety, quality, reliability and economic efficiency of equipment designed and supplied to the nuclear power plants.

This objective is achieved through:

- overriding priority of nuclear safety over any other activities of the Company;
- the Quality Management System meets ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 19443:2018 efficiently functions and continuously improves;
- contractual obligations, IAEA guidelines, and applicable legal requirements are met with due account of all stakeholders' needs: of consumers, counterparties, founders and personnel of the Company;
- persons awareness that quality is a major contribution in the reputation of the Company and to financial well-being of each employee;
- process approach and risk-oriented thinking are used;
- advanced design and engineering solutions based on international and Russian developments are used;
- the persons is trained and their competence is improved;
- focus on ensued on experienced product manufacturers.

The General Director leads quality activities of AAEM. The General Director commits to provide the Company with the necessary resources, to ensure achieving of the objectives and to create conditions to use efficiently and improve the Quality Management System.

General Director

A. Cherepanov